Bärbel Schomberg Voted into Supervisory Board of HAMBORNER REIT AG

At the shareholder meeting of HAMBORNER REIT AG in May 2011, Bärbel Schomberg was voted into the company's supervisory board.

HAMBORNER REIT AG is a joint stock company listed as real estate investment trust (REIT) that is active exclusively in the real estate sector, and that has positioned itself as portfolio holder for commercial real estate. Listed in the SDAX, the company owns a portfolio of real estate assets spread across major cities and so-called middle-order centres in Germany. The total value of the company assets approximates 435 million Euros at the moment.

Prior to setting up her consultancy firm Schomberg & Co. Real Estate Consulting, Bärbel Schomberg served in senior positions in the real estate and financial industry for nearly 30 years. As a member of the BVI Federal Investment and Asset Management Association and as managing director of real estate fund companies belonging to Commerzbank, Dresdner Bank and SEB Bank AG, she gathered a wealth of experience in the European real estate sector.

"REITs increasingly represent an interesting alternative to conventional investment vehicles of the real estate industry. The growth figures of HAMBORNER REIT AG suggest as much. I am therefore very pleased to have been appointed to the company's supervisory board," stated Bärbel Schomberg, Managing Partner of Schomberg & Co. Real Estate Consulting.
