Cityhold names members of its Advisory Board

The First and Second Swedish National Pension Funds' joint venture for European property investment, Cityhold Property AB, is pleased to announce that three highly experienced members are joining its Advisory Board; Charles Frederick Clark, Alec Emmott and Baerbel Schomberg.

Baerbel Schomberg – specialised in the German market

Schomberg is co-founder and managing partner of independent real estate consultant, Schomberg & Co. She has had a 30-year career in international property which includes managing director positions at Aberdeen Immobilien Kapitalanlagegesellschaft mbH, SEB, CGI and Allianz. These positions have granted her extensive experience of the German market.

Charles Frederick Clark, Bsc FRICS – specialised in the UK market

Clark has a broad range of experience spanning over 30 years within the UK property industry. He has been a long standing employee of BNP Paribas Real Estate, developing its fund management business. Latter parts of his career has been fund management focussed, creating a European investment fund for BNP Paribas; extending his experience outside of the UK.

Alec Emmott, MA MRICS – specialised in the French market

Emmott has over 30 years of experience working in French real estate. He qualified as a Chartered Surveyor in 1971 and went on to become Managing Director of Société Foncière Lyonnaise from 1997 to 2007. He previously worked at Groupe Commercial Union France/Victoire as well as Société des Hôtels de l'Etoile. This has given him a high level of experience within the French market.

“Charles, Alec and Baerbel have a great depth of experience within Cityhold’s desired markets. We’re extremely pleased to see them all in place to strengthen our operations and strategic analysis.” says Rickard Backlund, Executive Chairman of the Board of Cityhold.
